

REPORT FROM PURPLE AMERICA

Republican Candidates Debate #1:

How did the Republican candidates' statements and positions stack up against our shared America values?

Can the Top 'Values Candidates' Predict Who Will be the Next President?

The below grid outlines which of the Republican candidates made direct or indirect mention of any one of America's shared values. The twelve shared American values were identified through Purple America's interviews with one thousand Americans from across the country asking, "What are the values that connect Americans?" and "What do Americans stand for?"
