TRUST

Creating a contagious uplifting routine
Honesty
Realizing and being aware of self control

Trust is the issue, African American men lack trust in police – How do we build trust?

EQUALITY

Offer equal opportunity for jobs & advancement
Give back to the community
Follow the Golden Rule

Actions speak louder than words. We can talk all we want but what we need to do is go out in the community and do it!

Issue – Cultural Difference
Value – Equality
Action - Communication

Self Respect

Stop adults who bully (with respect)

Have Integrity

VALUES START @ HOME

Educate our youth to be fair, forgiving, tolerant, trusting, caring, kind, respectful and giving

Give young parents opportunity to learn how to parent, how to share knowledge or how to gain knowledge how to be a good person with a good heart to learn from mistakes to move forward to make better choices, to ask for help!

Show each person they are loved ~ through respect, teaching and responsibility

Be a father to your children
..... especially to your sons. They are lost without you.

Live American Values
Love
Truth
Peace
Freedom
Justice

FREEDOM

Work to train individuals about their personal rights

HONESTY

Personal Commitment

To get more personally involved in the community and to be more active in voicing my opinion and understand others point of view.

How to stop violence!

Values

Safety, Honesty,
Stand up for each other
Love & Respect

TRANSPARENCY
FOR ALL CITIZENS

Community Sharing
Raise Awareness
Create Conversations
More opportunities for dialogue
Teach & command respect

JUSTICE

RESTORATION HEALING VICTORY

RESPECT

We need to create safe environments in schools (K-12) where students feel safer, respected, loved, tolerant to all differences and learn tools for working with other human beings.

Our student mentioned his needs from us

- Idle Time
- Lack of adult guidance
- Education

Continue to create dialogue in our Boys & Girls Clubs where youth are respected and encouraged for their opinions.

Persons in authority can only gain the respect they want by giving the respect they demand

Engage in partnerships that work in collaboration to meet people where they are and walk with them to the next level

SAFETY

Encourage children to listen to and respect parents, teachers and people in authority

Create more opportunities for community dialogues to discuss safety issues in the community

Reduce violence in the home

FAIRNESS

We must deal with structural racism.... which is unconscious racism

We are more alike than different. We need to see ourselves in others.

Police officers should see themselves in others. They will then see all lives matter.

Members of the community should see themselves in the officers then they will understand how to treat them.

ACCEPTANCE

BE HONEST

FAITH

I am committed to leading by example and living my life as a Christian.

GIVING BACK

I am committed to provide and invest in education in the Slavic Village Community

Give back by engaging with youth, setting an example and exposing them to the opportunities available.

I will continue to tutor @ Breakthrough or another school in Cleveland

Mentorship & Role Models

Mentoring – not enough young professional are encouraged to mentor by their employers

Creating a contagious uplifting routine.
